

Hadassah Ein Karem Medical Center Jerusalem
Hôpital Necker – Enfants Malades
Un Cœur pour la Paix

Perinatal Cardiology: from Jerusalem to Paris

May 11, 2015
8AM to 5:15PM

Hadassah Auditorium

- 8:00 – 8:45 Registration and coffee
- 9:00 Opening notes - Hadassah Director General
 Introduction - Azaria Rein

Morning session

- 9:05 – 9:45 The Blalock-Taussig Shunt. Short and long term results from 1944 to 2015.
 Julius Golender
- 9:45 – 10:30 Is a Blalock-Taussig shunt still needed in 2015? Eldad Erez
- 10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00 – 11:45 Imprecision in fetal diagnosis of congenital heart disease and its impact on neonatal outcomes. Damien Bonnet

11:45 – 12:30 Repair of complex malpositions of the great arteries. Pascal Vouhé

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30 – 14:00 Visit of Chagall's windows

Afternoon session

14:00 – 14:30 Troponin as a cardiac biomarker in infant and children. Zeev Perles

14:30 – 15:00 To be announced

15:00 – 15:30 Pulmonary hypertension in neonates. Marilyne Lévy

15:30 – 16:00 Coffee break

16:00 – 16:30 Imaging coronary arteries after repair of congenital heart diseases.
Francesca Raimondi

16:30 – 17:00 The non-surgical approach to the dysplastic pulmonic valve. Sagui Gavri

17:00 – 17:15 Conclusive notes - Damien Bonnet and Azaria Rein

Admission is free, but prior registration is required at

Hadassahpedcardio@gmail.com or Muriel_Haim@yahoo.fr